THE ENGLISH ANCESTORS

WALTER GEERE, Gentleman, of Heavitree, County of Devon, England, born about 1450, married Alice Somaster, daughter of John Somaster, of Wydcombe, Devon, and granddaughter of Adam Somaster and Julyan, daughter of Sir John Prideaux, of Adeston. He had two children: JOHN, and Juliana, who married William Hurste.

JOHN GEERE, son of Walter, born about 1480, married, 1st, Alice Throwbridge, of Crediton, by whom he had one son: JOHN; married, 2nd, Jane Stowell, of Codleston, Somerset, by whom he had one son, Andrew, and two daughters, Mary and Anne.

JOHN GEERE, eldest son and heir of John, born about 1510, married, 1st, Juliana, daughter of Anthony Butside, of St. Bodockes, Devon, by whom he had two children: JOHN and Mary; married, 2nd, in November, 1546, Beatrix, daughter of John Jermyn, of Exeter, by whom he had four children: Nicholas, Andrew, GEORGE, and Alice. Andrew married, and had a daughter Anne, who married Richard Ashe of Sowton, in January, 1615-16. Alice married the Reverend William Varley, of Exeter, in April, 1583. GEORGE, the youngest son, was probably the father of JONATHAN, and the grandfather of GEORGE and THOMAS.

JOHN GEERE, eldest son and heir of John, of Hollaway, parish of Kene, Devon, born about 1540, married Elizabeth Burington, by whom he had four sons and four daughters: JOHN, Bartholomew, George, Humphrey, Katherine (m. Richard Walton), Bridget (m. John Walton), Joane (m. John Lange), and Mary (m. Christopher Lamacroft).

JOHN GEERE, eldest son and heir of John, of Hollaway, Kene, born about 1570, buried 24 December, 1645, married Mary, daughter of Gilbert Yarde, of Nuton Bushell, by whom he had three sons and six daughters: JOHN (b. 1600, d. 1664), George (b. 1610), Gilbert (b. 1611, d. 1631), and Elizabeth, Anne (b. 1604), Joane (b. 1605), Judith (b. 1606, d. 1638), Anne, and Rose (b. 1609, d. 1614).

(NOTE:—The arms of this John Geere are shown as a frontispiece in the Genealogy of James Geer.)

JOHN GEERE, eldest son and heir of John, born about 1600, baptized at Kenn, 21 April, 1603, buried there 17 March, 1663-4, married Ellinor —, by whom he had two sons: GILBERT and GEORGE.

GILBERT GEERE, eldest son and heir of John, baptized at Kenn, 12 September, 1650, Rector of Kenn, 1688, married Katherine —, and had three daughters: Katherine, Katherine and Ellen, and one son, Gilbert, baptized 21 October, 1690, buried 1727, who was also Rector of Kenn.

GEORGE GEERE, second son of John, born about 1648, married Elizabeth —, and had one son: George, baptized 7 June, 1677, buried at Kenn, 1719, married —, and had four sons: Richard, Gilbert, John and George, who were all baptized in 1700 and 1701.

PREFACE

Some years ago, in preparing papers for admission to the patriotic societies of the Colonial Wars and the Sons of the Revolution, I became interested in the subject of the history of the Geer Family in America, and this volume is the result of my researches. The only work which has ever been printed on the subject is a little book of eighty-four pages published nearly sixty years ago (1856) by James Geer of Ledyard, Conn., entitled "Historical Sketch and Genealogy of George and Thomas Geer from 1621 to 1856." This book is now out of print and very scarce.

As much of the material contained in the First Part of this volume is taken from the Genealogy published by James Geer, it may be of interest to quote here a part of his Introduction in which he states the origin of his work:—

"Living as the writer does upon the homestead of George Geer, and having in his possession many of the original papers belonging to him and his children, it very naturally prompted frequent inquiries respecting the past history of the Geer Family on the part of those descendants who visited the spot once trodden by our honored and revered sire. This spirit of inquiry, accompanied by many urgent solicitations that the genealogy of the family, as far as possible, might be collected together, suggested the idea of this memoir.

"That this has required much time and labor no one can doubt. To collect and arrange the names of so many in their appropriate places, from such fragmentary and obliterated materials, has been no easy task, nor without considerable expense. But the author felt that it had been already too long neglected and that, if undertaken, it must be done at once, and while he could wish that more able hands had undertaken it, yet the possession of many more documents than were possessed by any other, seemed to indicate that he should attempt it, and so far complete it as his declining years and decaying faculties would permit, being now (1856) in his 73d year.

“The design of the work is to give correct statistical information. To secure this, the author has made careful research of the records in New London, Groton, Norwich, Preston and the old Colony records at Hartford. He also visited Enfield and Springfield, and gleaned from their records such information as he could obtain respecting Thomas Geer. Besides this, much information has been collected from family bibles, tomb stones, and extensive correspondence. In some cases, the names by which persons were familiarly known have been changed to correspond with the true name of the person as found on record. The dates are made to correspond with the records so far as any could be found, by which to be guided.

“It may be proper here to explain why many dates in this work which were copied from early records are thus written, as for example, 1644-5. It will be observed that this mode of dating only occurs between the first of January and the 25th of March, and may be accounted for in this way: The ancients began their civil year the 25th of March, and though January and February were added 715 years before Christ, yet the practice of beginning the year January first did not become general until centuries after that, for we find that as late as 1654 Charles IX of France published an edict, in the last article of which it was decreed, that for the time to come the year should be constantly and universally begun and written on and from January first. It may also be remarked, that after the introduction of the new style, by Act of the English Parliament in 1752, this ancient practice of coupling the two dates soon became obsolete.

“While the Author has endeavored to secure correctness in all parts of the work, yet it will not be surprising if errors have crept in, though it is hoped and believed that there are but few.”

The First Part of the present volume, containing the records of the descendants of George Geer, or the elder branch of the family, is practically a reprint of the book of James Geer, with many additions and corrections, while the Second Part, which contains the records of the descendants of Thomas Geer, or the younger branch, is entirely new matter.

In collecting the material for this book, a great deal of information was secured regarding the members of the allied families in the Thomas Geer line. While this material does not strictly come within the scope of the Genealogy, and therefore has not been used in the body of the book, it seems too interesting not to be preserved in some more permanent form. It is therefore printed in Part Three.

Since the publication of Mr. James Geer's book, fifty-eight years have elapsed. During this long period of nearly two generations, the family has naturally increased largely, and become very widely dispersed. If, therefore, many lines of descent are not fully carried out in this record, it may be attributed to one of two causes: either the writer has found it impossible to get in communication with any member of that particular branch of the family, or they have failed to answer his requests for further information; but even in its imperfect form, it is hoped that the work may prove of some value and interest to the numerous Geer descendants.

WALTER GEER.

THE GEER GENEALOGY

ORIGIN OF THE NAME

Surnames as family names were practically unknown before the middle of the eleventh century and their use was not firmly established until after the thirteenth. In all countries, the adoption of surnames has generally marked the arrival of the people at a certain mark in civilization. All names were originally significant. They designated occupation, estate, place of residence or some particular thing that related to the person. The origin of the name of Geer is quite interesting. Ferguson, in "The Teutonic Name-System," says that in an age when war was the main business of man, names taken from the weapons in which he trusted, were as natural as they were common; and directly or indirectly from this source are derived more names than from all other sources put together. One of the most common weapons in those days was the Spear, and naturally one of the most common of all roots was the Anglo-Saxon gar, and the Old Saxon ger, Spear, from which is derived the English surname Geere. Barber, in "British Family Names," also gives the same origin of the name. Another authority, Lower, in "English Surnames," gives a somewhat fantastic explanation of the origin of the name. He says:—"The origin of the name Gear is curious. In the olden tyme (sic) great men employed an officer to superintend the equipment of their armed retainers, and as all sorts of arms were called gere or gear this person would very naturally acquire the name of John-of-the-Gear, or John-o-Gear, and at length John Gear." Gentry, in "Family Names," gives still another derivation. He says: "Gear=riches, goods of any kind."

THE GEER ARMS

The arms of the several branches of the family in England are strikingly alike and would seem to indicate a common origin. There are four known varieties, all practically in the same form, the main difference being in the coloring, viz:—

First: The arms of Jonathan Geere, of Heavitree, shown in the frontispiece. The description is as follows:

ARMS:—Gules, two bars argent, each charged with three mascles of the first, on a canton or, a leopard's face azure.

CREST:—A leopard's head erased proper, ducally gorged or, langued gules, between two wings gules.

MOTTO:—Non sans cause.

Second: The arms of John Geer of Heavitree, Devon, shown by James Geer in his Genealogy as a frontispiece to the book, described as follows:

ARMS:—Gules, two bars or, each charged with three mascles azure, on a canton of the second (or) a leopard's face of the third (azure).

CREST:—A leopard's head or, langued gules (no wings).

MOTTO:—In the Name of Geer.

Third: The arms of John Geere, Kent, Devon, as given in Burke's "General Armoury" and Fairbairn's "Crests:"

ARMS:—Gules, two bars or, each charged with three mascles azure, on a canton or, a leopard's face gules.

CREST:—A leopard's head azure, ducally gorged or, between two wings gules.

MOTTO:—Not given.

Fourth: The arms of Geare or Geere of Heavitree, Devon, as given in the Harleian Society's "Visitation of Devonshire," 1620:

ARMS:—Gules, two bars or, each charged with three mascles azure, on a canton or, a leopard's face azure.

CREST:—Not given.

MOTTO:—Not given.

THE ENGLISH ANCESTORS

The earliest ancestor to whom the family has been traced in England was WALTER GEERE, of Heavitree,* Devon, from whom all of the Devonshire Geers were descended. He lived about 1450, and was married to Alice Somaster, of Southams, Devon. The immediate ancestor of the family in England was Jonathan Geere, of Heavitree. But little is known about Jonathan. No record has been found of his baptism, or of the baptism of his sons, as the Parish Register of Heavitree does not begin early enough to contain these records, the earliest entry being dated 1653. Nor has any record been found of the will of Jonathan, after a careful search for wills of testators of that name proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury. He seems, however, to have been a man of considerable property. His wife died at an early age, and he soon followed her, leaving two young sons, George and Thomas, under the guardianship of an uncle.

THE AMERICAN ANCESTORS

George Geer was born about 1621, and Thomas (as appears from record in the town of Enfield, Conn.), in 1623. Their uncle apparently gave them little or no privilege of school instruction. Hence, in subsequent life, although both brothers held responsible positions, they never wrote their names in deeds or wills, but simply made their mark. The consequence was that their name was spelled in a variety of ways by those who had occasion to write it, Gear, Gere, etc. Their descendants, with but few exceptions (e. g., Syracuse Geres) write the name Geer, and the correctness of this spelling is verified by the fact that the name thus written is attached to the original coat of arms.

At an early age, their uncle, in order to obtain possession of their property, arranged to ship the two boys to America.

* Heavitree is a small town in Devonshire about a mile and a half east by south from Exeter, having in 1900 a population of about 7,000. It is not shown on any of the small maps of England.

The event is thus described by a descendant of the fifth generation:—

“George and Thomas were left orphans when quite young and were brought up by their uncle, and as they were heirs to a considerable estate it was the desire of their uncle to remove them out of the way that the inheritance might be his. To enable him to realize his wishes without hindrance, he wrote to the captain of a ship about to sail for America, requesting him to take the lads with him. George and his brother were sent with the letter, with orders to remain on board until they received an answer. They remained as directed, but to their surprise, while waiting, found themselves victims of deception and already on their passage without the possibility of returning.

“The above facts I received from my father, Thomas Geer, but mostly from Joseph Geer, grandson of George, when I was fifteen years of age.”

(Signed) JEPHTHAH GEER.

The ship above referred to arrived in Boston in 1635 and the boys were then put on shore in a new country without money and without friends. For quite a number of years after their arrival in Boston we find no history of their lives, and how long they remained in Boston and vicinity cannot be determined with absolute certainty. The first reliable record we find of them is that George was one of the early settlers of New London about 1651, and Thomas of Enfield in 1682. It is probable, however, that George came to New London in company with Robert Allyn and others as early as 1651, and that Thomas remained in Salem, Mass., until after the death of King Philip in 1676.

George Geer and his Descendants

EXPLANATION OF THE GENEALOGICAL TABLE

On the next page will be found the names of GEORGE GEER and his principal male descendants in the next three generations. On the following pages are given the names of his descendants in the four succeeding generations. The names in each generation are numbered consecutively, and the full records of such persons will be found under those numbers on subsequent pages of the book. For all other names mentioned in the book, reference should be made to the Index at the end of the volume.

George Geer and His Descendants

FIRST GENERATION

I

GEORGE, was born about 1621; died in 1726; married Sarah Allyn, 17 February, 1658. We have already given the history of George Geer prior to his arrival in New London, about 1651. He resided in Groton until five or six years previous to his decease and then removed to Preston and lived with his daughter Margaret, who married Thomas Gates. He lived for 65 years with Sarah, his wife, and died at the age of 105 years. He was totally blind the last few years of his life.

Children:

- (1) Sarah, born 27 February, 1659; married Nathaniel Park, 28 February, 1676-7. He was born in New London, Conn., and died about 1718. In 1701 he was allotted land in Voluntown for service in Colonial wars. They resided in Preston, Conn.

Children:

- (a) Nathaniel, born 14 August, 1681; died about 1724.
 - (b) Joseph.
 - (c) Ezekiel.
 - (d) John.
 - (e) Isaac.
 - (f) Jacob.
 - (g) Phebe.
 - (h) Margaret.
- 2 (2) Jonathan, born 26 May, 1662; died, 30 April, 1742; married, 1st, Mary, who died 24 April, 1718; married, 2nd, Mrs. Experience Geer.
 - 3 (3) Joseph, born 14 October, 1664; died 10 August, 1743; married Sarah Howard, 7 January, 1692, in Preston, Conn.

- (4) Hannah, born 27 February, 1666; married Charles Williams. They resided in Preston. His will was exhibited at the Probate Court, New London, 23 February, 1742-3. Nothing further is found on record.
- (5) Margaret, born in February, 1669; married Thomas Gates, in December, 1695, in Preston, Conn. He resided near her brothers in Preston, and with them her father spent his last days. The will of Thomas Gates of Preston, made and signed 8 April, 1724, was exhibited and proved at the Probate Court in New London, 25 August, 1726. He died in Preston, 10 August, 1726.

Children, all born in Preston :

- (a) Robert, born 3 October, 1696.
 - (b) Zebadiah, born 4 September, 1699.
 - (c) Prudence, born 26 May, 1703.
 - (d) Daniel, born 21 April, 1707.
 - (e) Thomas, born 15 June, 1709.
 - (f) Margaret, born 4 March, 1714-15.
- (6) Mary, born 26 March, 1671; married Zachariah Mainor. She resided in Groton adjoining the farm of Robert Allyn, her grandfather, and, as appears by her father's will, died and left two daughters.

Children :

- (a) Hannah.
 - (b) Mary.
- 4 (7) Daniel, born in September, 1673; died 2 October, 1749; married —.
- 5 (8) Robert, born 2 January, 1675; died in 1742; married Martha Tyler.
- (9) Anne, born 6 January, 1679; married Daniel Tyler and settled on a tract of land east of and adjoining the farm of Zachariah Mainor, who married her sister Mary. They had a son named Hopestill, who purchased 110 acres of land of his cousin, Robert Geer, deeded 28 June, 1715. Hence the name of Tyler Hill, kept in remembrance to the present time. We have not been able to find any further record of this family that can be relied upon.

Child:

(a) Hopestill.

- 6 (10) Isaac, born 26 March, 1681; died in 1745; married Martha —.
- 7 (11) Jeremiah, born in September, 1683; died in 1721; married Esther —.

(Note.—The names of Daniel and Jeremiah were not found on record although mentioned in deeds and in their father's will.)

SECOND GENERATION

JONATHAN (George¹), was born 26 May, 1662; died 30 April, 1742; married, 1st, Mary —. She died 24 April, 1718; married, 2nd, Mrs. Experience Geer. He removed from his paternal home at an early period, and settled about ten miles north of his father, on land he gave him by deed dated 11 January, 1686. On 27 December, 1686, in company with about twenty other "landholders," he petitioned to the General Court at Hartford for a town to be set off, bordering on Norwich, New London and Stonington. Their petition was granted and the town called Preston. As appears in the Probate Records of New London, the power of administration was granted to Jonathan Geer, Jr., and Mrs. Experience Geer (his second wife), of Preston, on all the personal estate of Mr. Jonathan Geer, late of Preston, deceased, the landed property having been previously disposed of by deed, as was the custom of those days.

The following, taken from the Probate Records of New London, is introduced as evidence of the correctness of the above:—

"June 2, 1742—Inventory £440 11s. 4d., divided (after payment £8 15s. debts) unto and among the widow and children. To the widow Experience Geer, one-third £143 18s. 9d.; to Jonathan, the eldest son, double share £82 5s.; to the legal representatives of Deborah Park £41 2s. 6d.; to Sarah Gennings of Windham, £41 2s. 6d.; to Mary Potts £41 2s. 6d.; to Zerviah G. £41 2s. 6d.; to Dorothy Tyler of Willington £41 2s. 6d."

Children:

- 8 (1) Jonathan, Jr., born —; married, 1st, Elizabeth Herrick, 15 June, 1721; married, 2nd, Hannah Putnam, 16 April, 1745.
- (2) Deborah, born —; died 10 December, 1736, in Preston, Conn.; married, 27 March, 1709-10,

James Park, in Preston, Conn. He was born in Norwich about 1689 and died about 1726-7.

Children, all born in Preston:

- (a) Aaron, born 4 March, 1711; died 4 April, 1733.
 - (b) Rachel, born 14 November, 1714; married Joseph Ellis.
 - (c) Deborah, born 10 August, 1716; married Joseph Rude.
 - (d) Robert, baptized in 1718.
 - (e) Rebecca, baptized in 1720; married Jacob Rude.
 - (f) Nathan, baptized in 1722.
 - (g) Jeremiah, baptized in 1725.
- (3) Sarah, married — Gennings, of Windham.
 - (4) Mary, married — Potts.
 - (5) Zerviah, married John Geer, 12 May, 1725.
 - (6) Dorothy, baptized 8 July, 1705, in Preston, Conn.; married — Tyler, of Willington.

JOSEPH (George¹), was born 14 October, 1664; died 10 August, 1743; married Sarah Howard, 7 January, 1692, in Preston, Conn. He removed to the town of Preston not long after his brother Jonathan and became a landholder and, as appears on record, his father deeded to him a further tract of land in the town of Preston, 23 February, 1706-7. He remained on his farm until his death. He was a man often called upon to act as arbiter in disputed cases, and also on committees in behalf of the town.

Children:

- 9 (1) Joseph, Jr., born 17 October, 1692; died 19 May, 1718.
- (2) Kezia, born 23 February, 1708-9.
- (3) Benajah, born 31 May, 1710. No record of his death or marriage. On the Probate Records of New London is found the following:—"Administration was granted to Benajah Geer, of Preston, on the estate of his father, Joseph Geer, late of Preston, deceased 10 August, 1743."

- (4) Sarah, born 17 September, 1712.
- (5) James, born 15 January, 1714-15; baptized 10 April, 1715; married Zipporah Williams. She died 24 March, 1739, aged 18 years, 7 months, 24 days.

DANIEL (George¹), was born in September, 1673; died 2 October, 1749; married —. He settled near his brother Jonathan, in the town of Preston. The tract of land on which he settled was granted to his father (George¹), by Owaneco Sachem, eldest son of Uncas, 11 December, 1691, which he deeded to his son Daniel, 22 February, 1706-7 (Preston Records). He also added to his farm by purchase; was an industrious farmer, and accumulated a handsome estate. The inventory of his personal property at his decease amounted to £954 14s. 7d. His farm remained in possession of his descendants most of the time since his decease, but is now owned by one of the same name out of his lineage.

Children, all born in Preston:

- 12 (1) Daniel, born 15 June, 1700; married, Abigail Spicer, 31 May, 1750.
- 13 (2) John, born 29 March, 1703, baptized 1 August, 1703 (called Jonathan in Church Register); married Zerviah Geer, 12 May, 1725, in Preston, Conn.
- 14 (3) Christopher, born 19 December, 1706, baptized 8 July, 1707; married, 1st, Hannah —; married, 2nd, Prudence Randall. She died 16 January, 1811, aged 101 years, 9 months, 23 days.

- 15 (4) Ebenezer, born 29 December, 1709; baptized 1 April, 1710; married, 1 April 1730, Desire Herrick.
- 16 (5) William, born 4 January, 1713; died 5 February, 1772; married, 1st, Esther Geer, 10 December, 1733; married, 2nd, Dinah Weeden, 29 December, 1757.
- (6) Thankful, born 7 January, 1721-2.

ROBERT (George¹), was born 2 January, 1675; died in 1742; married Martha Tyler, who died about 1733. He settled south of the homestead on land deeded to him by his father. Here he built a house and erected the first grist mill in this section of the country. Miss Caulkins, in her history of New London, page 373, says: "Capt. Robert Geer was one of the leading inhabitants of North Groton during the first half of the 18th century and his mill was one of the three places where all warnings were to be posted."

An agreement (given on page 14 of James Geer's Genealogy) had been entered into between George, party of the first part, and Isaac and Jeremiah, parties of the second part, dated the 15th of January, 1713-14, providing for a division of the farm between Isaac and Jeremiah, with the proviso that the one taking the dwelling house should provide suitable rooms, etc., for George and Sarah, his wife, during their lives. It appears that Jeremiah failed to fulfill his contract with George Geer, his father, and that the homestead property reverted back into the possession of the parent about 1718, and was subsequently purchased in part by Robert. Another part was given to Oliver, a son of Jeremiah, by his grandfather. Though it is not certain, yet it is believed that he removed back to the homestead before his death. He deeded the farm to his three sons, dividing the greater part between Robert and Ebenezer. James had a small part, and the remainder of his share was adjoining the mill house and lot as mentioned in the will. Robert, Jr., bought Oliver Geer's right to twenty-five acres, 11 December, 1732 for £30, and subsequently sold all his right in the homestead to his younger brother Ebenezer for £300 money, 16 December, 1742, soon after their father's decease, and it has ever since remained in possession of his descendants.

We here insert the last Will and Testament of Robert Geer as interesting, if for no other reason, because of its antiquity and assistance in unfolding past events. It is copied from the original files of the Probate Court in New London:—

“In the name of God, Amen. I, Robert Geer, of Groton, in the County of New London, and Colony of Connecticut, in New England, being by divine goodness in the enjoyment of my rational powers, yet remembering whereof I am made, that I am soon, and for aught anything I know, unexpectedly to myself and friends, to leave the world, and utterly to have done with all the things of this present state, under these apprehensions I bequeath my spirit unto ye good and gracious God who originally gave it to me and has so wonderfully provided for its eternal welfare by his son Jesus Christ, my Lord; and my body also, which he has so wonderfully formed and graciously preserved to this time, when he resumes my spirit, I bequeath to the earth, in sure and certain hope of the resurrection from the death, at which time I hope to receive a glorified spiritual body, and then in body and spirit forever to be with the Lord.

“And whereas, God in his goodness has blessed me with some of the good things of this life, that there might be no controversie about them after my departure, what remains yet undisposed of I give and bequeath in following form and manner:—

“Imprimis, to my eldest and well-beloved son, Robert Geer, I give and bequeath the small parcel of land, with all the buildings and appurtenances appertaining, situate in Groton, and bounded as follows:—[Description omitted here.]

“Item,—I give and bequeath to my second and beloved son, Ebenezer Geer, the sum of £40 money, to be paid him at or before the expiration of two years after my decease, by his eldest brother Robert Geer.

“Item,—To my beloved son, James Geer, I give and bequeath all the land lying between the above disposed of, and land formerly given to my son Robert Geer and also £40 to be paid unto him at or before the expiration of two years after my decease, by his eldest brother and also the privilege of carrying on the business of tanning in the place where his vates now are.

“Item,—To my beloved daughter Mary, I give and bequeath the sum of £50 money to be paid her by her eldest brother Robert, £25 at the end of one year and £25 at the end of three years after my decease, as also the one-half of my moveable estate, and my large Bible.

“Item,—To my beloved and youngest daughter Martha I give and bequeath the one-half of all my personal estate, my large Common Prayer Book, and the sum of £50 money, to be paid her by her brother Robert Geer, £25 at the end of one year, and £25 at the expiration of three years after my decease.

“And out of the sincere regard I have to the religion of my dear Lord, as professed in the church of England, and for the promotion of truth and virtue therein, I give and bequeath and consecrate the sum of 20 shillings annually to be paid to the Church Wardens of the Church in North Groton, for the use and benefit of the minister of said Church forever, to be paid at the end of every year after my decease, by my son Robert Geer, his heirs, assigns and forever.

“This I declare to be my last Will and Testament, and hereby revoke any written or verbal will made by me heretofore; and for the faithful performance and execution of the above will, according to the true meaning and intent of it, and each part of it, I constitute and appoint my eldest son, Robert Geer, to be the sole executor of this, my last Will and Testament, made the 30th day of August, A. D. 1742.”

——.
- (4) Mary, b. ——; married John Spicer.
- (5) Martha, (nothing further is known of her, except by her father's will).

ISAAC (George¹), son of George and Sarah, was born 26 March, 1681; died in 1745; married Martha ——. He is supposed to have remained at home until the early part of 1715, when as appears from the agreement entered into between their father and the two brothers, Isaac and Jeremiah, he removed to the southern part of the paternal estate, it having fallen to him by the terms of that agreement. In addition to the land thus acquired he purchased several tracts adjoining. The house built by him during the latter part of his life, and mentioned in the annexed Will, is at present standing (1914) and is occupied by a Mr. Clark, who bought it of Captain Nathaniel B. Geer. The pear tree planted by his hands is no longer alive. That he was a persevering and business man is fully proved by the large estate he accumulated, though dying a young man when compared with his father, and while some of his children were minors. For the information and satisfaction of his numerous descendants, I have taken a copy of the original Will as found on file in the Probate Office, New London, which it is believed will be interesting as exhibiting not only the names of his children, but the disposition of his property.

THE WILL OF ISAAC GEER:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Isaac Geer, of Groton, in the County of New London, and colony of Connecticut, in

THE ISAAC GEER HOMESTEAD

New England, being sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given to God therefore, and calling to mind the mortality of my body, and that it is appointed for all men once to dye, do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament:—

“First and principally, I recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it me, and my body to the earth, to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named; and as to such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give and dispose the same in manner following:—

“Imprimis—I give to my well-beloved wife, Martha $\frac{1}{3}$ part of all of my movable estate, to be at her dispose forever, and the use and improvement of $\frac{1}{3}$ part of all my real estate, as long as she remains my widow.

“Item—I give to my well-beloved sons Benjamin and George my homestead farm on which I now dwell, with the buildings and fencings thereon, as is bounded in the Records, to be to them, their heirs and assigns forever, they paying the legacies to their brothers and sisters which is hereinafter mentioned.

“Item—I give to my well-beloved sons Solomon and Jacob £150 in money apeace, to be paid to each of them when they arrive to the age of 21 years, by their brothers, the said Benjamin and George.

“Item—I give to my four well-beloved daughters Martha, Lucy, Elizabeth and Sarah, to each of them £100 in money, to be paid to each of them when they arrive to the age of 18 years or day of marriage by their brothers the said Benjamin and George.

“Item—I give to my love son Isaac 5 shillings money to be paid to him by his brothers the said Benjamin and George, which together with what I have already given him by deed, is to be in full of his portion out of my estate.

“Item—I give to my sons Benjamin and George $\frac{2}{3}$ of all my moveable estate, to enable them to pay off all the aforementioned legacies. And my will is that George shall live with Benjamin and work for him while he arrives to the age of 20 years, and that Solomon and Jacob be bound out to tradesmen to learn trades, at the age of 14 years. And I do hereby nominate and appoint my well-beloved wife Martha and my well-beloved son Benjamin to be my sole executor and executrix to this my last Will and Testament, declaring this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

“In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 25th of Oct., A. D. 1739.

ISAAC GEER (Seal).

“At a Court of Probate, holden in New London, January 10, 1745-6, the last Will and Testament of Isaac Geer, late of Groton, deceased, was exhibited, proved and accepted and ordered to be recorded.

“At a Court holden at New London, March 10, 1746-7, Benjamin Geer, Executor of the last Will and Testament of Isaac Geer, late of Groton, deceased, exhibited an additional inventory; also a receipt from Martha^a Geer, widow of Isaac Geer.”

It appears from the Groton Records that the farm described in the foregoing will as the homestead farm contained 179 acres, and that a division was made by distributors appointed for that purpose and recorded 11 December, 1746, also that Benjamin received the paternal residence and George the southern part, upon which he afterward built a house and lived, which is now standing (1856). Previous to the erection of his dwelling he occupied the easterly part of the homestead house and barn, and Benjamin the westerly part.

- 41 (2) Nathan, married Jerusha Tracy, 1 May, 1766.
- (3) Martha.

“At a Court of Probate, holden at New London, April 6, 1747, Martha Geer was appointed administrator to the estate of Isaac Geer, Jr., late of Groton, deceased.

“Also, at a subsequent Court, held Oct. 11, 1748, Martha Geer exhibited the Inventory amounting to £483 2s. 6d., divided to the widow and children. To the widow £161 0s. 10d. (one-third) ; to the eldest son a double portion £161 0s. 10d. ; to the youngest son a single portion £80 10s. 5d. ; to the daughter of said deceased a single portion £80 10s. 5d. ; making in all £483 2s. 6d.

“This Court appoints Martha Geer guardian into Isaac Geer, 3rd, Nathan Geer and Martha Geer, minors, under 12 years, and children to Isaac Geer, Jr., late of Groton, deceased.

“And the said Martha Geer and George Geer was bound in the sum of £400 that she shall be faithful in her office of guardianship aforesaid.”

The foregoing facts seem to show that there were three who bear the name of Isaac. The error into which some have fallen is the confounding of Isaac, Jr., and Isaac, 3rd, supposing them to be one and the same person.—(Note by James Geer).

ALPHEUS (Elijah,⁴ Ezra,³ Joseph,² George¹), was born in Kent, Conn., 7 August, 1788; died in Norwich, Conn., 3 February, 1866; married 29 November, 1815, Sarah Whiting Marshall, of Torrington, Conn. He was graduated at Union College, 1813; ordained deacon in 1814, and priest in 1815. He was rector of St. John's Church, Waterbury, Conn., and of one of the smaller outlying parishes, for eighteen years. He was the last of the clergymen of St. John's who joined the care of some other parish to his regular ministerial work. This was the period which marked the transition in Connecticut from an agricultural condition to one in which manufactures became the dominant interest. He was also the last rector of that parish who depended on the cultivation of the land for a portion of his income. The cultivation of the glebe land, and their own land, by the early New England ministers furnished an important part of their support. In those days a settlement was regarded as for life, and a grant of land was usually a part of the settlement; so that in many cases, similar to his, the clergy were considerable land holders and successful cultivators. On 20 October, 1816, he presented to Bishop Hobart of New York, then acting Bishop of that diocese, which was temporarily without a Bishop, a class of two hundred and twenty-six for confirmation, this being with one exception the largest class confirmed by Bishop Hobart.

After the name of this Samuel, on page 37 of the old Genealogy, are placed the two letters "F. S." Miss Ellen Geer states that he was a very muscular man—could lift very heavy weights and perform many feats of strength. He was also very fond of wrestling with any one who would meet him, and for this reason was known among his comrades as "Fighting Sam." Mr. James Geer, therefore, put the letters "F. S." after his name to distinguish him from the many other Samuels.

JEWETT HOLLAND (Ira,⁵ John,⁴ Ezra,³ Joseph,² George¹), was born 13 May, 1831, in Peru, Mass.; married 29 June, 1854, at Hinsdale, Mass., Mary C. Goldthwait, who was born 8 March, 1834, at Dalton, Mass., the daughter of Elias Goldthwait. Was a farmer and also engaged in the lumbering business. He was Deacon of Congregational Church of Peru, Mass., for many years; Justice of the Peace; School Trustee in Peru, Mass. On the opposite page is reproduced a view of a valley in the Berkshire Hills showing the old homestead in the south part of Peru, Mass., of John Geer. His sons Peter and Ira Geer, his grandson Jewett Holland Geer and his great-grandsons Ira Jewett and Sumner C. Geer were all born and brought up here. The view is looking north over the valley, most of which was occupied, owned and farmed by John Geer and his direct descendants for over 130 years. Beyond the farm buildings is the sugar-maple grove of venerable trees of three to four feet and over in diameter. The main highway from Pittsfield and Hinsdale runs east between the house and maple grove to Middlefield and Chester. The roads, lanes and fields are bordered by miles of old stone walls and fences. The brooks, upper tributaries of the Westfield River, converging southward, were once well filled with brook trout. Deer, under protection of recent game laws, now roam over the hills as in the early days.

Children:

- 138 (1) Ira Jewett, born 29 May, 1858, living in Chicago, Ill.
- (2) Lincoln E., born 16 April, 1862; died February 1902. (Left four children, Ira, Edna, Leila and Vera.)

She was born in Hartford, 5 December, 1823, daughter of William Montague. He was graduated at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., in 1842, and at the Episcopal General Theological Seminary, New York, in 1845. He was made Deacon in 1845, in Christ Church, Hartford, by Bishop Brownell of Connecticut, and Priest in 1846, at Christ Church, Ballston Spa, by Bishop De Lancy; and he discharged the duties of a very efficient rectorship in that parish for seven years. He became associate rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, New York, in 1859, and rector of St. Timothy's, New York, in 1866, which charge he held until his death. He received the degree of S. T. D. from Columbia, and that of D. D. from Union, in 1862. Dr. Geer was conspicuous for his interest in the music of the church. He composed a number of hymns. Several of them appear in the church hymnals, and are still sung in the services. By appointment of the Bishop with the Reverend Dr. Muhlenburg and Bishop Bedell he edited the Tune Book, which was, for many years, used in most of the Episcopal churches in New York City, and throughout the country. He was a delegate to the General Convention from the Diocese of New York when it met in New York City in 1874.

JAMES LEWIS (James,⁵ Robert,⁴ Ebenezer,³ Robert,² George¹), was born 8 November, 1808; died —; married, 1st, Prudence Almira Gallup, 19 November, 1834, by whom he had three children. She died 17 July, 1847. Married, 2nd, Mary Ellen Geer, 10 April, 1848. She was the daughter of Elijah D. (69). They resided in Norwich, Conn.

Children:

- (1) Robert, born 23 March, 1837.
- (2) Ellen, born 9 March, 1841.
- (3) Lucy, born 9 October, 1842.

Miss Ellen Geer and her sister Lucy are members of the D. A. R. (Daughters of the American Revolution), the Mayflower Society (from Governor Bradford) and the "Societie of the Founders of Norwich, Connecticut." Miss Ellen Geer is Treasurer of the latter society, and has been Registrar of Faith Trumbull Chapter D. A. R. for the last sixteen years. In a letter from her under date of 6 January, 1914, she gives the following interesting information regarding the old "Geer Homestead":

"My grandfather (James Geer, the editor of the first Genealogy) lived on the farm where my first ancestor, George Geer, settled, and the site of his first house is still to be seen near the spring, which is referred to on page 15 of the Genealogy as 'the little house over the seller'. The present house, which is the fourth house on the farm, my grandfather built in 1848. It has always been owned and occupied by our branch of the family, and is still owned by my grandfather's heirs. His children are all dead, so the present owners are the children of James L. (106) and Nathaniel B. (107). My cousin Juliette (the daughter of Nathaniel B.) still lives there, but we have a farmer who also lives in the house and cultivates the farm. We are all very much interested in this 'Geer Homestead.' It is also of interest that the farm where Robert Allyn settled and established a trading post is still known as 'Allyn's Point' on the Thames River, and is still owned and occupied by the Allyn family of the ninth generation. Robert Allyn's eldest daughter Sarah married George Geer 17 February, 1658, and there is little doubt that George Geer came with Robert Allyn and family from Salem, Massachusetts, to New London. At the time they made the settlement the land on both sides of the river was known as New London,—later the east side of the river formed the town of Groton, and in 1835 the north part of Groton formed the town of Ledyard, so the Geer Homestead and the Allyn Homestead are now both in the town of Ledyard."

PART TWO

Thomas Geer and His Descendants

GENEALOGICAL TABLE

Thomas Geer and His Descendants

FIRST GENERATION

I

THOMAS. In the sketch of the lives of the American Ancestors, the history of Thomas Geer has been traced until his arrival in Enfield, Conn., about 1682. From the records of that town it appears that he was one of the early settlers, for on 24 July, 1682, he had a grant of a house lot and thirty acres of meadow land; also in 1684-7 other grants of land are recorded.

He married *Deborah Davis, daughter of Robert and Ann, of Barnstable, who was born in 1645. Various circumstances go to show that Thomas was about fifty years old when he was married. He had but one son who survived him to bear the name. This fact accounts for the great difference in the number of descendants of the two brothers. George had six sons who were married and had families, whereas Thomas had but one, and that one born the same year as George's eleventh child and sixth son.

Land was granted Thomas Geer in 1682, in Enfield, then in Massachusetts, but afterwards a part of Connecticut, and it is of record that he was a tanner. He deeded various pieces of lands to his son Shubael, and owned at various times, besides his home lot, some 15 acres in the South Field on the "grate river"; 13 acres more or less in the North Field; also at Schantuck river, 2 acres meadow and 3 acres of field land; in 1687 an additional 5 acres of field, to make up the 35 acres "as was engaged him."

In 1771, "the Commoners voat to chose a man of an other towne to be a Moderator to act for them as to Settling their common rights in this town"; "those that Desent agst ye Last act" are given and Thomas Geere is one of them.

* See Part Three.

Of the extent or value of Thomas Geer's property, nothing additional is known, except what may be gathered from a deed of gift which he and his wife made to their son Shubael, and signed by their x mark. This deed is dated 22 February, 1694-5, and is recorded in the Registrar's office, 16 January, 1698-9. Also Thomas and Deborah, his wife, gave a deed to their son Shubael of all their right and title to all their lands in the town of Enfield. This deed is dated 23 August, 1717, and signed by their x mark, (the name written Geer) and is recorded on Page 342, Book No. C. in the Registrar's office in Springfield, Mass.

Of the declining life of Thomas we know but little. His good old age, however, would indicate that he was a steady and worthy inhabitant. The property of Thomas remained in the same name until 1796 when, as appears from record, Elihu Geer disposed of his house and lands and removed, since which time there is no record of any descendants residing in Enfield.

He died 14 January, 1722, aged 99 years, and his widow Deborah died in January, 1735-6, aged "about ye 95th year."

Children, (precise order unknown):

- (1) Mary, died before 1721; married John Prior in Enfield, 15 April, 1686. He married, 2nd, Sarah Pease. John Prior was born 14 February, 1664, probably at Windsor, Conn. He was called yeoman, and owned some 60 acres of land at Name-rick, in the township of Windsor, for which he paid £260.

Children:

- (a) Ann, born 31 March, 1690.
- (b) Mary, born 6 March, 1692.
- (c) John, born 16 May, 1695.
- (d) Daniel, born in Enfield, 16 October, 1697.
- (e) Sarah, born in Enfield, 12 February, 1699-1700.
- (f) Nathaniel, born in Enfield, 1 September, 1702.

- (g) Azariah, born in Enfield, 26 January, 1704-5.
 - (h) Ezekiel, born in Enfield, 24 April, 1708.
 - (i) Thankful, born in Enfield, in 1712.
- 2 (2) Shubael, born in 1683 (probably).
- (3) Elizabeth, born 4 May, 1684; died 1 April, 1688.

It is probable that he had more children than the three who appear with him in Enfield, but his history before his settlement in that town is very uncertain.

SHUBAEL, (Thomas¹), date of birth not known, but was probably in 1683. He married, 27 January, 1702-3, *Sarah, daughter of Thomas Abbe (1656-1728), who was a soldier in King Philip's War from Wenham, 1675. She died 16 February, 1731-2, in her 47th year, but the date of his death is not in Enfield records.

He was an active man in town affairs, serving at different times as fence viewer, field driver, surveyor of highways, searcher and gager, and constable, and also served on committees. He held a good farm, and was a trusted and respected citizen. It is a quaint coincidence that when he was appointed searcher and gager, he was appointed to use the letter "S" for searching, and "G" for gaging the casks. While these are the initial letters of searching and gaging, they are also his own initials.

He was present at the "Great Swamp Fight," as a member of Captain Appleton's Company.

Children:

- (1) Shubael, born in Enfield, 1 December, 1702-3; died 15 March, 1703-4.
- (2) Sarah, born in Enfield, 5 March, 1704-5; died in Enfield; married John Simons, 1 December, 1723. He was the son of William Simons, and was born in 1695. "The aged John Simons died 27 January, 1781."

Children:

- (a) John, born in Enfield, 19 March, 1724; married Miriam Jones, in 1748.
- (b) Sarah, born in Enfield, 22 August, 1726.
- (c) Paul, born in Enfield, 11 September, 1729.

* See Part Three.

- (d) Ebenezer, born in Enfield, 19 February, 1731-2; died 11 March, 1755.
 - (e) Asahel, born in Enfield, 7 April, 1734; married Mahetabel Isom in 1759.
 - (f) Charity, born in Enfield, 27 July, 1736; died 17 February, 1737-8.
 - (g) Charity, born in Enfield, 4 September, 1738; married John Abbe, Jr., in 1761.
 - (h) Bethsheba, born in Enfield, 24 January, 1740; died 4 October, 1742.
 - (i) Titus, born in Enfield, 7 June, 1743; married Sarah Simons, in 1763.
 - (j) Bethsheba, born in Enfield, 9 June, 1748; died 30 April, 1754.
 - (k) Edward, born in Enfield, 3 September, 1750.
- (3) Deborah, born 17 August, 1707; married Ezekiel Prior, in Enfield, 24 August, 1732. He was her cousin, son of John and Mary (Geer) Prior. He was born 24 April, 1708, and died 27 July, 1798, aged 90 years. He served in Lieutenant David Parson's 3rd Company, Major General Phineas Lyman's 1st Regiment, and is in the list of Enfield soldiers who went with Captain Jonathan Pettibone in his Company to Fort Edward in August, 1757.

Children:

- (a) Cloe, born in Enfield, 29 February, 1733-4.
 - (b) Zaccheus, born in Enfield, 13 March, 1736-7.
- (4) Mary, born 10 March, 1709-10; married Roger Griswold, 21 February, 1729-30. She had three sons, Roger, Shubael and Solomon, who were soldiers in the Colonial wars.

Children :

- (a) Roger, born in Enfield, 16 February, 1731.
 - (b) Shubael, born in Enfield, 15 March, 1734.
 - (c) Solomon, born in Enfield, 11 February, 1737.
 - (d) Jehiel, born in Enfield, 25 February, 1740.
 - (e) Jonah, born in Enfield, 28 February, 1743.
 - (f) Joseph, born in Enfield, 3 October, 1745; died 30 August, 1746.
 - (g) Joseph, born in Enfield, 30 May, 1749.
- (5) Tabitha, born 21 July, 1712; died 30 August, 1748; married Edward Collins, in Enfield, 19 February, 1735-6. He was born 26 November, 1713, and died 10 October, 1796. He was the son of Reverend Nathaniel and Alice Collins. He was ensign for Enfield, in October, 1751. Deputy from Enfield to the General Court of Connecticut Colony for every year from 1755 to 1779, with the exception of 1777. He was also Justice from 1772 to 1779 inclusive.

Children :

- (a) Edward, born in Enfield, 14 January, 1736-7; died 4 October, 1743.
 - (b) Elisha, born in Enfield, 17 January, 1738-9.
 - (c) Ebenezer, born in Enfield, 17 April, 1741.
 - (d) Tabitha, born in Enfield, 23 June, 1743; died 7 August, 1749.
 - (e) Elihu, died 4 October, 1743. (This last may have been the Elisha above.)
- (6) Bathsheba, born 16 January, 1714-5; married Charles Sexton, 7 January, 1736-7. He and his son Charles, Jr., died on the way home from the Havana Expedition. He died 16 September, 1762. The family lived in Somers, Conn. He served in the reduction of Fort Louis at Oswego, and in the capture of Montreal, in 1760.

Children :

- (a) Bathsheba, born in Enfield, 17 September, 1741.
 - (b) Charles, born in Somers, 28 April, 1744; died 25 September, 1762.
 - (c) Eleuer, born in Somers, 17 August, 1746.
 - (d) Hannah, born in Somers, 15 August, 1748.
- 3 (7) Shubael, born 26 May, 1717; married Hannah Pease, 20 November, 1737.
- (8) Elizabeth, born 15 January, 1719-20; died 20 October, 1757; married Ebenezer Terry, 10 September, 1747. He was born in South Kingston, R. I., 29 October, 1722, and died 15 July, 1817, aged 95 years. He was the son of Ebenezer Terry. He was Deputy from Enfield to the General Court of Connecticut in 1761.

Children :

- (a) Mehetabel, born in Enfield, 4 January, 1747-8.
 - (b) Elizabeth, born in Enfield, 28 February, 1749-50.
 - (c) Ebenezer, born in Enfield, 31 August, 1753.
- 4 (9) Thomas, born 1 July, 1722; died in 1751; married Hannah Abbe, 30 January, 1745-6.
- (10) Annah, born in December, 1725; died 15 February, 1764; married Aaron Pease, 10 October, 1751. He was born in Enfield, 1 April, 1726, son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Warner) Pease. He was a blacksmith by trade and was Collector of the Colony Tax in Enfield in 1758, 1761 and 1771.

He married, 2nd, Mary Terry.

Children:

- (a) Aaron, born in Enfield, 3 June, 1752.
- (b) Levi, born in Enfield, 22 June, 1754.
- (c) Sarah, born in Enfield, 2 December, 1756.
- (d) Stone, born in Enfield, 11 January, 1759.
- (e) Ann, born in Enfield, 6 November, 1761; died young.
- (f) Ephraim, born in Enfield, 5 June, 1765.

THIRD GENERATION

SHUBAEL (Shubael,² Thomas¹), was born 26 May, 1717; died —; married 20 November, 1737, *Hannah Pease, daughter of Ebenezer and Mindwell (Sexton) Pease.

He was commissioned Ensign of the First Company, or Train Band, Enfield, in May, 1761. He removed from Enfield.

Shubael Geer, yeoman, bought house lot No. 58, Charlestown, N. H., of Nathaniel Mills, on 13 June, 1773, and sold it to Nathaniel Miles (Mills?), potter, on 18 June, 1774.

This fixes the date of his arrival in Charlestown as prior to 13 June, 1773. His will is not recorded in Keene or Newport, N. H., and although search was made in Concord, Keene, Walpole, Charlestown, Marlow and Claremont, no record of his death could be found. A search was also made for his will in Washington and Albany Counties, New York, thinking he might have accompanied his son Walter, but none is of record. He was living in 1790 in Charlestown with one male and two females in his household (U. S. Census, 1790, New Hampshire).

Children:

- (1) Hannah, born in Enfield, 3 December, 1738; died young.
- (2) Sarah, born in Enfield, 28 November, 1740.
- 5 (3) Shubael, born 6 May, 1743; died before 22 December, 1825, probably in Charlestown; married Sarah Babcock of Ashford, 11 February, 1766.
- (4) Ebenezer, born in Enfield, 6 July, 1745; died 30 August, 1746.
- (5) Thomas, born in Enfield, 5 October, 1746.
- (6) Ebenezer, born in Enfield, 23 October, 1747; died 30 August, 1749.
- (7) Elihu, born in Enfield, 3 May, 1749.
- (8) Ebenezer, born in Enfield, 1 January, 1750-1; married Sarah —. She died 23 February, 1777.

* See Part Three.

He bought land in Walpole of John Bellows, 11 May, 1778, and sold it to Shubael Geer, Gentleman. On 24 March, 1779, he bought lots in Charlestown of John Hubbard and sold lots, 13 July, 1784, to Samuel Pitman of Boston.

- (9) Hannah, born in Enfield, 19 March, 1753; married Joshua Markham of Enfield, 31 December, 1772. He was born 18 June, 1751.
- (10) Mindwell, born in Enfield, 10 February, 1756.
- 6 (11) Walter, born in Enfield in 1759.
- 7 (12) George, born in Enfield, 6 June, 1761.
- (13) Charles, born in Enfield, 6 June, 1761.

THOMAS (Shubael,² Thomas¹), was born 1 July, 1722; died in 1751; married Hannah Abbe, 30 January, 1745-6. She was born 27 March, 1723, daughter of Thomas and Mary Abbe. She married, 2nd, 15 November, 1753, Noah Phelps, by whom she had six children. She died in East Windsor, 12 September, 1818.

Children:

- 8 (1) Thomas, born in Enfield, 16 October, 1746; died 10 April, 1827; married Mary Pease.
- 9 (2) Elihu, born in Enfield, 3 May, 1750; died 11 May, 1801; married, 10 December, 1774, Eleanor McClester, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth McClester.

FOURTH GENERATION

SHUBAEL (Shubael,³ Shubael,² Thomas¹), was born 6 May, 1743; died before 22 December, 1825, probably in Charlestown; married Sarah Babcock, of Ashford, 11 February, 1766. He was a trader of Charlestown and was interested in numerous real estate deals in that town from 1773 to 1794. He bought land in Walpole, N. H., of Ebenezer Geer of Charlestown, Cordwainer, 22 June, 1780. In the United States Census of 1790, New Hampshire, he is recorded as living in Claremont, with four free white males of 16 years and upward, two under 16, and four females of all ages, with one slave. On 22 December, 1825, Sally Geer, widow of Shubael Geer of Charlestown, leased land there to Thomas Taylor.

His children recorded at Concord and Charlestown were:

- (1) Anna, born in Enfield, 19 March, 1768.
- (2) William, born in Andover, Vt., 25 September, 1769.
- (3) Cynthia, born in Andover, Vt., 19 March, 1771; married Charles J. Kingsley, in Claremont, N. H., 21 May, 1792.
- (4) Ralph, born 24 October, 1777. (This is from the History of Charlestown. Concord records say he was the son of Ralph and Sarah, which would seem to be an error, as no Ralph, Sr., is of record.)
- (5) Augusta, born in Charlestown, 18 August, 1780.

WALTER (Shubael,³ Shubael,² Thomas¹), was born in 1759; died about 1808; married *Lucy Allen, daughter of Benjamin and Peggy (Spafford) Allen, who was born 28 March, 1758, in Charlestown, N. H.

†Walter Geer enlisted in the Revolutionary Army in May, 1778, at the age of 19, with his brother Charles, aged 16. They enlisted in Captain Jason Wait's Company, 1st Regiment New Hampshire Line, Colonel Joseph Cilley, as from Marlow, Cheshire County, N. H. A thorough examination of Marlow records, as well as the private collection of Mr. Elgin A. Jones, an antiquarian in that town,—failed to show any residence there of the Geer family, and Mr. Jones thinks the boys were employed there, probably on some farm. Their home was undoubtedly in Charlestown.

† Accepted by Sons of the Revolution.

In 1781 Walter Geer sold house lot No. 60 in Charlestown. A thorough effort has been made to trace the previous history of this lot. It was owned by Moses Wheeler in 1754, but the only deed executed by him and recorded at Keene does not show the fate of this lot. Walter Geer does not appear at all as grantee, but reference to pages 156 and 157 of the History of Charlestown will show that County lines were very unsettled at that period, and the Register of Deeds at Keene says that many documents were not recorded on that account.

In 1790, according to the United States Census for New Hampshire, he lived at Keene, remaining there until January, 1792, when a child of his died there.

In 1791 Frazier and Geer commenced an action against Enoch Hale, Esq. Enoch Hale asked the Assembly to allow him to enter it at a Court of Judicature at Amherst, Hillsborough (sic) County, N. H., as he was defaulted at the last Inferior Court of Common Pleas held at Amherst.

Walter Geer also brought a petition, the nature of which is not stated. His petition was heard and he was allowed to bring in his bill 12 January, 1791. On 8 June, 1791, the House of Representatives voted for a Committee to join the Senate to consider the petition of Walter Geer. It was brought up, read and concluded, Mr. Page and Mr. Kingsbury joining. The third reading and enactment took place 17 June, 1791 (N. H. State Papers). An attempt was made to get at the original records at Concord, N. H., to find out what this petition was, but without success, as the State Librarian was on vacation (August, 1908).

Mr. Geer was a cordwainer by trade, and between 1781 and 1796 lived or visited in several towns, namely, Charlestown, Lebanon and Keene, N. H.; Windsor, Vt., and Salem, N. Y.

He appeared at Salem, N. Y., about the year 1795-1796, for he was taxed there in the latter year, 4s. 0d.—and in a list of “Members of the New England Congregation in Salem prior to 1800” he is given as arriving in 1796. These items are from the collection of the late Judge Gibson of Salem. All the Church records in Salem were burned in 1840, and the town records also.

In 1798, Mr. Geer ran for a local office and advertised in the Northern Centinell for August 13, 1798, in a poem beginning:—

“My name I own is Walter Geer,
I come from Charlestown in New Hampshire,
Have wrought in Salem three years or more;
And never yet was stumped before.”

Judge Gibson’s note says there is more of the poem and we have tried to get it, but have thus far failed to locate a copy of the paper containing it. They haven’t it at Salem, Albany or New York.

Mr. Geer advertised as a cordwainer in the Northern Post, successor to the Centinell, on 15 October, 1804.

In a return of the Overseer of Highways, District 1, Town of Salem, on 22 March, 1808, Mr. Geer was assessed 3 days. He worked two of them and commuted for 62½ cents.

This is the last record of him. He left no will recorded either in Albany or Washington County, and took no part in land transactions in either place.

His children were:

- (1) Harmony, daughter, born in Lebanon, N. H., 27 June, 1784.
- (2) Daughter, born in Windsor, Vt., 7 November, 1786; died before 1790.
- (3) Lucy, born in Charlestown, 29 January, 1789.
- 10 (4) Walter, born in Charlestown, 9 January, 1792.

Note.—Mr. Geer appears in the census of 1790 with one male and two females in his family. One daughter had died before 1790, and another (either Harmony or Lucy) died in Keene, in January, 1792.

GEORGE (Shubael,³ Shubael,² Thomas¹), was born in Enfield, 6 June, 1761; married Anna (Joanna) Nott of Walpole, 20 March, 1788. He then lived in Keene. He served as Sergeant in Colonel Ebenezer Walbridge's Regiment, Captain Peter Payne, in 1781.

Child:

Royal, born in Charlestown, N. H., 5 March, 1789.

THOMAS (Thomas,³ Shubael,² Thomas¹), was born in Enfield, 16 October, 1746; died 10 April, 1827; married Mary Pease, born 25 September, 1749. She died at the age of 92 years. They had nine children, the first three born in Enfield and the others in Charlestown. In May, 1780, he moved from Enfield to Charlestown, N. H. He traveled with a yoke of oxen and a cart in which was stowed his wife and children and household goods. The cart was the first vehicle of the kind (such is tradition) ever seen in Charlestown. He was on his way on the memorable "dark day" which occurred 18 May, 1780, and was obliged on account of darkness to stop and put up. On coming to Charlestown, he first lived in a house near the present residence of J. G. Briggs, Jr., and had a tannery to the north of it. He also carried on the business of shoe-making. He afterwards built a house now standing on the northeast corner of East and Sullivan Streets, also a small shoe-shop, such as was then common in New England, and devoted himself to shoe-making entirely. Mrs. Geer was a milliner and dressmaker—the only one in town at that time. After moving into their new house, the family were frequently entertained by the howling wolves which used to come down at night from the deep forests and prowl around the door. He was a cordwainer. He sold on 10 December, 1798, to Oliver Hall of Charlestown, "The land I now live on" in Charlestown, and its buildings, covered by mortgage to Jason Witherbee. Mary Geer signs. (Recorded 15 December, 1798, Liber 30, p. 460, Keene. Name spelled "Gear," only instance in this family). Trouble followed. Thomas and Jason quarreled, and the sheriff ordered Thomas to pay $12.58 costs or go to jail, 20 December, 1798.

Thomas Geer, tanner, of Charlestown, bought land there of Abel Walker, 25 March, 1781; and Thomas Geer, gentleman, of Charlestown sold to Jason Witherby, tanner, land in Charlestown which had been owned by Spafford Cory and Col. Abel Walker, on 20 March, 1797.

FIFTH GENERATION.

WALTER, JR. (Walter,⁴ Shubael,³ Shubael,² Thomas¹), was born at Charlestown, N. H., 9 January, 1792; married in Northumberland, 2 November, 1815, *Henrietta Van Buren (daughter of Elizabeth Newell and Martin Van Buren, cousin of President Van Buren), born 20 September, 1792, in Easton, N. Y.

His boyhood and early youth were passed with his parents in Salem, Washington County, N. Y. About the time he reached his majority, he removed to Union Village, where he was drafted and went with the militia of our Eastern border, to repel the British advance at Plattsburgh, during the war of 1812. He removed in February, 1816, to Schaghticoke, where he commenced business as a tanner and currier. At this time he appears to have been the associate and peer of such men as William L. Marcy, Jonas C. Heartt, Job Pierson, Moses Warren, James Livingston and B. P. Staats; men that for a generation exercised a controlling influence over the politics of Eastern New York, and all of whom left their mark upon the dial plate of the world's progress. In March, 1820, he came to Glens Falls, N. Y., and resumed the business pursued at Schaghticoke. He soon afterwards embarked in trade with Abraham Wing and L. L. Pixley. Was afterwards a partner with George Sanford in the mercantile business. At the time of the enlargement of the Glens Falls feeder (Branch of the Delaware and Hudson Canal), of which he was an active promoter, he had a contract with the State for some portion of the excavation, and also built the locks at Fort Edward. Not far from this time he went into the lumbering business with the late James D. Weston and John J. Harris. Their investments and ventures were so judiciously made, and the business so ably looked after and managed, that all these acquired a handsome competency. He was a magistrate in Queensbury, N. Y., from 1821 to 1826, and member of Assembly in 1837, a year memorable in politics for its financial crisis, and the secession of the Conservatives from the Dominant Party. He was one of the principal originators and founders of the Glens Falls Academy, and was instrumental in forwarding the erection of the Second Presbyterian Church Building, which was destroyed in the great fire of 1864. He was a promoter of educational and religious enterprises, an active and influential politician, a man of indomitable will, and inflexible purpose. He died 16 July, 1855, and was among the first whose remains were deposited in the new cemetery, where a handsome and conspicuous monument has since been erected to his memory.

DEATH OF HON. WALTER GEER.

(From the Albany Atlas.)

“Hon. Walter Geer of Glens Falls, Warren County, died suddenly on the 16th of July, aged 63 years. He was well known and highly esteemed by all who knew him, not only in his County where he was a leading citizen, but in this city and in Troy, where he numbered many friends. He was a Democrat—consistent and intelligent, and a sound adviser and steadfast friend. He was one of the delegates of this State to represent the 15th District in the Democratic National Convention in 1852.”

JOHN TYLER, of Andover, Mass., was born about 1621; married Mary —.

MOSES TYLER, son, was born in 1642; Quartermaster, of Rowley and Andover, living in 1712. Savage says he died 2 October, 1727; married Prudence Blake of Boxford, 6 July, 1666, in Andover. He was quartermaster of Essex County Militia in 1689.

JOHN TYLER, (Capt.), son, was born 14 September, 1669; died 17 June, 1756; married ANNA MESSENGER, (While he is called Captain, he does not seem to have served in any war.)

HANNAH TYLER, daughter, was born 13 June, 1714; married 27 October, 1728, JOHN SPOFFORD.

MESSINGER

HENRY MESSINGER and his wife Sarah were residents of Boston prior to the year 1640. He was the first known proprietor of the land upon which the Massachusetts Historical Society Building and the Boston Museum afterward stood. He was a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company in 1658. His wife left the Messinger coat-of-arms in her will to their son Simon. These arms are not described.

JOHN MESSINGER, son, was born 25 January, 1641; married Martha —.

ANNA MESSINGER, daughter, of Boston, was born in 1677 and died 11 February, 1745-6; married CAPT. JOHN TYLER.

VAN BUREN

CORNELIS VAN BUREN, the fore-bear, came from Holland in 1631 on the ship "Endracht." He came from the Province of Gelderland, from the small place called Burmalzen, near the town of Buren, a few miles from the Rhine. Three years later he returned to Holland, married there, and came back to this country in 1636. He settled in the Colony of Rensselaerwyck. His career was rather uneventful. It is recorded that he purchased a piece of property in Manhattan, located between the present Christopher and Fourteenth Streets, doubtless having a North River frontage. He and his wife Catalyntje both died and were buried the same day at their farm at Papsknee, some time in 1648.

MARTIN VAN BUREN, son, was born in 1638 or 9; died 13 November, 1703; married Marytjie (Mary) Quackenbosch about 1662. He owned a house, barn, etc., in Bethlehem, Albany Co., in 1662. In 1665 or 1675 (as authorities differ) he owned one-half of Constaples Island, a short distance below Albany, in the Hudson River. He and his wife were members of the Dutch Reformed Church in Albany prior to 1683. In 1697 the census credits his family as "two men, no women, one child." On 7 May, 1693, he married, 2nd, Tanneken (Ann) Adams, widow of Pieter P. Winne. In 1700 he was Captain in Colonel Pieter Schuyler's regiment at Albany. He made his will in Dutch, 10 April, 1703, and it was proved 7 June, 1710.

MARTIN VAN BUREN, son, was born in 1678; died 21 October, 1740; married in 1700, Judikjie Barentse (Meindersen); married, 2nd, 14 July, 1719, Maria Van den Berg. He was a Freeholder in 1720 at Rensselaerwyck. He and his wife were members of the Albany Dutch Church, and their children were all baptized there.

JOHANNES VAN BUREN, son, by the second marriage, was baptized 21 November, 1725; died —; married 26 April, 1760, Marytje Briesch.

MARTIN VAN BUREN, son, was born 16 December, 1762; married Elizabeth Newell at Schaghticoke. They had issue: John, born 12 June, 1785; Elizabeth and Henrietta. John and Elizabeth lived and died in Lockport, New York. Martin and Elizabeth, his wife, were sponsors at the baptism 13 January, 1789, of Martin Becker, born 21 November, 1788, the son of Margarita Van Buren, who married John Becker. Barent, the father of Margarita, was a half-brother of Johannes, the father of Martin—hence Martin and Margarita were cousins. Martin, the father of Henrietta, was a second cousin of Abraham, the father of Martin Van Buren, the eighth President of the United States. In those days, as now, it was customary to say cousin, and not mention the degree.

HENRIETTA VAN BUREN, daughter, was born in Easton, Washington County, New York, 20 September, 1792; married 2 November, 1815, WALTER GEER (10).

DANFORTH

*NICHOLAS DANFORTH, progenitor of the American branch of this family, was baptized in Framlingham, England, 1 March, 1589; died in Cambridge, Mass., in April, 1638; married Elizabeth ——. The marriage registers at Framlingham are wanting from 1615 to 1620, the period which includes his wedding; the baptismal registers give us merely the Christian name of his wife, "Elizabeth," nor do any documents yet discovered show her family name. Elizabeth died in Framlingham and was buried there 22 February, 1623.

Nicholas was the son of Thomas Danforth, who married Jane Sudbury, 24 January, 1585. He was buried 21 March, 1601.

The parish registers of Framlingham show that Nicholas was one of the leading men there, being a church warden in 1622. We learn further from the history of the town that he was a member of the "Court Baron" or "Borough Leet Jury" in 1629.

Nicholas came from Framlingham, Suffolk, England, in 1634 and settled in Cambridge, Mass. He is mentioned in the town records there as a proprietor in 1635. The historian of Cambridge states that he resided in what is now called Bow Street, near Mt. Auburn Street. He was chosen a deputy or representative to the General Court of Massachusetts in 1635.

*JONATHAN DANFORTH, (Captain), youngest son of Nicholas, was born in Framlingham, England; baptized there 2 March, 1627-8; died 7 September, 1712, in Billerica, Mass.

He married 22 November, 1654, in Boston, Elizabeth Powter (or Poulter), by whom he had eleven children. She was born 1 September, 1633, in Raleigh, England, and died 7 October, 1689, in Billerica. After her death he married, second, on 17 November, 1690, Esther Champney of Cambridge, the widow of Josiah Converse of Woburn. She died soon after her husband, 5 April, 1713.

As a child, Jonathan came with his father, brothers and sisters to Cambridge and was there brought up. He became a resident of the new town of Billerica, whose lands were chiefly owned by Cambridge people. He was selectman, town clerk, representative, and captain of the Billerica Company of Militia in 1689, having been commissioned as such 10 October, 1683. He made his will 23 April, 1712. It was probated 27 October, 1712.

*JONATHAN DANFORTH, (Ensign), was the eldest son of Captain Jonathan. He was born in Billerica, 18 February, 1658-9; died 17 January, 1710-11; married 27 June, 1682, Rebecca Parker, by whom he had nine children. He was in garrison in Billerica at his father's house, 14 October, 1675.

SAMUEL DANFORTH was the third son of Ensign Jonathan. He was born 16 September, 1692, in Billerica; died about 1749; married 5 August, 1714, DOROTHY SHED, by whom he had twelve children. The records show that administration was granted 17 August, 1749, to Samuel Danforth, Jr., on the estate of Samuel Danforth, Yeoman. The inventory included: "One right in a township granted to the soldiers that weare in the Narraganset wars."

†JONATHAN DANFORTH, (Captain), was the youngest son of Samuel. He was born 14 June, 1736, in Billerica; died in Williamstown, Mass., in February, 1802; married, first, in Warren, 22 April, 1759, Lydia, daughter of Nathaniel and Phoebe (Lamb) Read, by whom he had five children. Married as his second wife, 13 September, 1770, MIRIAM † Accepted by Society of the Sons of the Revolution.

COOWIE, by whom he had six children. She was born 9 July, 1748, in Warren, Massachusetts.

Jonathan moved to Western, now Warren, Mass., and resided there, and at Williamstown.

By his first wife, Lydia, Jonathan had two sons and three daughters. Joshua, the eldest son, settled in Pittsfield, Massachusetts. He was Postmaster there for over forty years and was one of the founders of the Society of the Cincinnati. Another son, Jonathan, settled in St. Albans, Vermont. One of his daughters, Mrs. Billings, settled in Cambridge, N. Y. Another settled in Vermont and her granddaughter, Mrs. Woodward, was the mother of Vice-President William A. Wheeler, while still another daughter married Judge Poland, for many years Senator from Vermont.

The following is the official memorandum of Jonathan's military service, as accepted by the Society of the Sons of the Revolution and by the Order of the Founders and Patriots of America:

"Jonathan Danforth, of Western, Sergeant in Captain Reuben Read's Company of Minute Men, Colonel Jonathan Warner's Regiment, which marched 20 April, 1775, to Roxbury in response to the alarm of 19 April, 1775; also Captain in Colonel David Brewer's Massachusetts Continental Regiment, from 24 April to December, 1775; also Captain of the 8th Company in the 6th Regiment Massachusetts Continental Infantry, Colonel Asa Whitcomb, from January to December, 1776; in camp at Ticonderoga, 27 November, 1776; Captain in Colonel Wigglesworth's Regiment; Minute Man at the battle of Bunker Hill; also at the battle of Bennington, Vermont."

KEYES DANFORTH, fourth child and third son of Jonathan by his second wife, Miriam, was born in Williamstown, Mass., 6 June, 1778; died there 6 October, 1851; married in 1800, MARY BUSHNELL. He served several terms in the State Legislature of Massachusetts, and was for many years the leader of the Democratic Party in Berkshire County. Three of his four sons were lawyers and his four daughters all married lawyers. Mary, the eldest daughter, married

Judge A. B. Olin, who was one of the most prominent lawyers in eastern New York, served three terms in Congress, and was appointed by President Lincoln as Judge of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. Another daughter, Hannah, married Joseph White, one of the most distinguished scholars in New England. Mr. White was for a time partner of Judge Olin, and afterwards succeeded Horace Mann and Governor Boutwell as Secretary of the Board of Education of Massachusetts. He was one of the founders and trustees of Smith College, and for nearly forty years treasurer and trustee of Williams College. Another daughter, Harriet, married Colonel George H. Brown of Providence, for many years leader of the Bar of the State of Rhode Island, Representative in Congress, and a distinguished soldier in the Civil War as commander of a regiment from Rhode Island. The eighth and youngest child and fourth daughter was Helen Augusta.

HELEN AUGUSTA DANFORTH, fourth daughter and eighth and youngest child of Keyes, was born in Williamstown, Massachusetts, 31 January, 1828; married 24 January, 1856, ASAHIEL CLARKE GEER, (14).

SHED

*DANIEL SHED, (Corporal), died 27 July, 1708; married May ——. He was a member of the Rev. Samuel Whiting's garrison in Billerica, with his son John Shed and others, 8 October, 1675.

*JOHN SHED, son, was born 2 March, 1655, in Billerica; died 31 January, 1736-7; married SARAH CHAMBERLAIN, 9 January, 1676-7. He is on Major Simon Willard's payroll for 12 October, 1675.

DOROTHY SHED, daughter, born 14 January, 1691-2; married SAMUEL DANFORTH.

CHAMBERLAIN

*WILLIAM CHAMBERLAIN, born about 1620, of Woburn and Billerica; died 31 May, 1706, in Billerica. He was a soldier in Sergt. Hill's garrison house, Billerica, 8 October, 1675. He received payment for military service at Billerica, 24 February, 1676-7.

SARAH CHAMBERLAIN, daughter, was born 20 May, 1655; married 9 January, 1676-7, JOHN SHED.

COOWIE

MIRIAM COOWIE was born 9 July, 1748, in Warren, Mass., the daughter of Andrew and Jane Coowie; died in Williamstown, Mass., in 1820; married 13 September, 1770, JONATHAN DANFORTH. She was a woman of remarkable character and ability. Left alone at home during the Revolutionary War with her family of small children she, with the aid of her young sons, carried on the farm, enduring untold hardships which made her a cripple from rheumatism for several years before her death. Her husband, Jonathan, raised a company of Minute Men at Western, now Warren, Worcester County, Mass., and fought at the battle of Bunker Hill with his two sons, Joshua and Jonathan. While at Boston he was taken sick with small pox and his wife made the trip on horseback from Western to Boston, a distance of almost one hundred miles, carrying a babe of eleven months, and nursed him through his illness and then returned on horseback to Western. Some years later Jonathan moved to Williamstown and purchased a farm of several hundred acres, on which he lived and died. This farm was also the residence of his son Keyes, and of his grandson of the same name, during their lives, but is now (1914) no longer in the possession of the family.

Captain Jonathan raised a company of Minute Men at Williamstown, which he commanded at the battle of Bennington. Before leaving home he told his wife that if information reached her that the enemy were marching on Williamstown, she was to harness the oxen to a cart and carry away everything she could. Twice the report reached her that the enemy were coming and twice she loaded her cart, but the reports proved to be false. After the battle some British officers who had been captured, and their wives, were quartered on her for several days, and one of the women left with her an embroidered silk dress which, tradition says, "was so thick that it could stand alone." This was afterwards her daughter's wedding dress.

BUSHNELL

‡FRANCIS BUSHNELL, born in England; died 1646; married Rebecca ——. He was one of the first settlers of Guilford, Conn., 1 June, 1639.

*WILLIAM BUSHNELL, (Lieut.), son, died 12 November, 1683; married Rebecca Chapman of Saybrook, sister of Robert. William Bushnell was confirmed to be Lieutenant of Train Band at Saybrook, Conn., in May, 1679. He had been made Sergeant of the same under Lieut. William Pratt in 1661. He was deputy to the General Court of Connecticut in 1670.

WILLIAM BUSHNELL, son, was born 15 February, 1648-9; died 9 December 1711; married Rebecca ——, 7 October, 1673. She died 14 May, 1703.

EPHRAIM BUSHNELL, son, was born 14 February, 1675-6; married 16 October, 1712, Anne Hill.

THOMAS BUSHNELL, son, was born 24 August, 1722; died in October, 1771; married Dorothy Douglas 24 June 1756, in Saybrook, Conn.

EPHRAIM BUSHNELL, son, of Saybrook, Conn., was born 24 August, 1760.

MARY BUSHNELL, daughter, was born 28 September, 1784; died 27 January, 1867; married, in 1800, KEYES DANFORTH.

POTTER

JOHN POTTER, the first settler, was born in England, about 1607; died about 1643; married Elizabeth ——. He came to America, probably with his brother William, in the "Abigail," from London, in 1635, and settled in East Haven, then a part of the town of New Haven, Conn. In 1651 he obtained 20 acres of the Fresh Meadow lands. On the 19th of August, 1680, Sergeant John Potter bought of Thomas Clark a farm of about 360 acres. His estate was rated at £25, and his family consisted then of four persons, himself, wife and two sons, John, Jr., and Samuel.

JOHN POTTER, JR., son, born about 1635; baptized in New Haven, Conn., 17 October, 1641; died 24 December, 1706; married, in 1661, Hannah Cooper. In 1662 he bought a homestead in East Haven. In this deed he is called blacksmith. His will was proved in New Haven the first Monday in January, 1706-7—inventory £416.45.

SAMUEL POTTER, son, born 2 January, 1675; died 26 November, 1737 (?); married 10 January, 1710-11, Abigail Hill. No further record.

DAVID POTTER, son, born 26 November, 1717; died in Hamden after 1773; married 17 November, 1748, Sarah Gilbert. His will was made 9 March, 1773. In the inventory, which amounted to £27 7s, he was called David Potter, of the parish of Mount Carmel, since called town of Hamden.

ABEL POTTER, son, was born in Hamden, 15 June, 1749; died 29 August, 1818; married Mary Turner.

SAMUEL POTTER, son, was born in Hamden, 24 October, 1794; died 19 February, 1880; married 21 February, 1819, SOPHIA RICE, born in 1792; died in 1865; daughter of Dorothy Houghton and Samuel Rice. He removed in 1819 to Charlemont, Mass., carrying his effects by two ox teams. He settled upon a hillside farm, mostly covered with primeval forest, looking down upon the Deerfield Valley. The homestead is now owned by his great nephew, Mark W. Potter, of New York City.

ORLANDO BRONSON POTTER, son, born in Charlemont, Mass., 10 March, 1823; died in New York City, 2 January, 1894; married 28 October, 1850, Martha Green Wiley, born in 1822 and died in 1879, daughter of BENJAMIN BROWN WILEY. He entered Williams College in the class of 1845, but was obliged by ill-health to leave in the Sophomore year. After a trip at sea, he obtained employment at Denis, Cape Cod. In 1845 he entered Dane Law School, Harvard College, and was admitted to the bar in Boston, 12 February, 1845. He opened an office in Court Square, and also an evening office in South Reading, ten miles from Boston. He continued his practice until May, 1853, when he removed to New York to take charge of the business of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Co. He became President of this company, and retained that position until the company retired from active business, in 1876. Soon after his arrival in New York, he became interested in real estate, and erected a number of buildings. On 14 August, 1861, he laid before the Secretary of the Treasury, Judge Chase, the first comprehensive plan for a national currency. This plan, without material modification, was adopted in the National Banking Act of 25 February, 1863. In November, 1882, he was elected to Congress from New York City, as a Democrat. He was a member of the Committee on Banking and Currency and took part in most of the important discussions before the House. He declined a renomination in 1884. In 1886 he completed the erection of the large office building at Park Row and Beekman Street, New York City, which bears his name.

MARY POTTER, daughter, born in New York City, 24 December, 1857; married 26 September, 1883, WALTER GEER (18).

RICE

* EDMUND RICE, born about 1594, the American ancestor of this family, came from Barkhamstead, in the county of Hertfordshire, in England, and settled in Sudbury, Mass., in 1638-9. This place, called "the plantation lying near unto Concord" was incorporated in 1639, by the name of Sudbury. His residence was on the east side of Sudbury river, in the southerly part of what is now Wayland. He was Selectman in 1644, deacon of the church in 1648. In 1656, he was one of the thirteen petitioners belonging to Sudbury who besought the General Court for a new plantation. Their petition was granted, and the new plantation was incorporated in 1660 under the name of Marlborough, and he removed to that place. His wife, "Tamazine," died at Sudbury, 13 June, 1654. He married, 2nd, "Mercie," widow of Thomas Brigham, of Cambridge, on 1 March, 1655. He was deputy to the General Court in 1640 and later. He died at Marlborough, 3 May, 1663, and was buried at Sudbury. The inventory of his estate amounted to £743.

EDWARD RICE, the second son of Edmund, born about 1619; died 15 August, 1712; married Anna ——. He resided first at Sudbury, and later at Marlborough, where he was Deacon of the Church. His widow Anna died at Marlborough, 4 June, 1713, aged 83.

JOHN RICE, the eldest son of Edward, born about 1647; died 6 September, 1719, aged 72; married Tabitha Stover, of Sudbury, 27 November, 1674. He resided at Sudbury (now Wayland) on part of the homestead of his grandfather, Edmund.

MOSES RICE, the third son and ninth child of John, was born 27 October, 1694; died 11 June, 1755; married Sarah King, at Sudbury, 16 November, 1719. He removed to Worcester about 1722. He was posted at Rutland, Worcester County, on garrison duty, with others from Worcester, in 1724, under the command of Captain Samuel Wright of Rutland. He commanded a company of cavalry while he resided at Worcester. He removed to Rutland, where he appeared of record in 1742. He purchased 2200 acres of land in the township of Charlemont, 23 April, 1743, and later removed to that place. Being a frontier settlement, it was exposed during the French and Indian Wars, and suffered by the ravages of the enemy. On 11 June, 1755, while Captain Rice was ploughing in a field, he was shot by Indians lying in ambush, and severely wounded. He was then taken some distance into the adjoining woods where he was tomahawked and scalped. Such was his tragical end. His widow, Sarah, died about 1788.

SAMUEL RICE, eldest son of Moses, was born at Sudbury 10 August, 1720; died at Charlemont 20 September, 1793; married Dorothy Martin, of Rutland, at Worcester, 20 July, 1741. She died at Charlemont, 9 February, 1790.

† SAMUEL RICE, the fourth son of Samuel, was born —; died at Charlemont, 16 December, 1832; married Dorothy Houghton. He was Corporal in Captain Isaac Farwell's Company, 1st Regiment New Hampshire Line, Colonel Joseph Cilley, 1780. (The same regiment in which WALTER GEER served.)

SOPHIA RICE, the seventh child, of Samuel, was born 3 March, 1792; died —; married 21 February, 1819, SAMUEL POTTER.

GREEN

THOMAS GREEN, the progenitor of this family in America, was born in 1606, in Leicestershire (probably), in England; died 9 December, 1667. He married Elizabeth —, by whom he had five sons and five daughters. It seems most probable that with his wife Elizabeth, and at least three of his children, he came over among the early settlers of the Massachusetts Colony; that he remained temporarily in some one of the new settlements, perhaps Ipswich, till about 1649 or 1650, when he removed to the northern part of Malden (now Melrose), the southern part having been already occupied by settlers from Charlestown; that there he came into possession of his farm, consisting of "meadow, broken upland and waste land, being by estimation 63 acres, with the meadow at Ensign Lynds'," (Thomas Greene's Inventory); and that with him, or near him, were living all his children, except Hannah, who married Joseph Richardson, and removed to Woburn. His farm was situated just east of the present site of the Stoneham railroad station. Here was the "old mansion house," with its "parlor" furnished with "a bedstead, a featherbed, one boulder, one pillow, 3 curtains, a Valliance, one chest, 2 pair of sheets and two blanketts, 5 napkins and one little table cloath, 6 chairs, one great chest, one box, 2 cushions, one Cosleat compleat, one Musquett, one table, one Wollen Wheele & one old warming pan"; also a "little chamber," furnished with "two flock beds, coverlett, blankett &c."; also "Samuel's chamber," containing "one feather bed, one straw bed, Rugg, Box & bed stead (half headed)"; also a "Hall" containing "4 pewter dishes, one candle sticke, one salt sellar, one old copper kettle, two skilletts, one iron pott, pott hook & kettle, 4 great trays & 4 little trays, one Doz. Trenchers, one salt box, one grate, two payles, one half bushell, one old pillion & saddle, Tramell, tongs, cleaver & Spitt"; also a "Leantoe," containing "a fox trap and a Bracke"; and, finally, a "cellar," containing "one meal trough, one Bear barrell, a grindstone, winch, Hough & Smoothing irons, a Scythe-snath & knip," as well as sundry other articles. The same inventory which gives us this information tells us that he had "four oxen, five cows, one bull a year & vantage, one mare, one horse, six sheep, the half of eleven swine; some fifty bushells" of grain, and that "the house, out-housing, orchard, and all the land belonging there unto," was valued at £179.12, the whole estate being estimated worth £285.18.2. It is evident, from deeds on records at East Cambridge, that his sons and grandsons purchased lands in the immediate vicinity of the "old mansion house"; so that, though many of them are recorded as belonging to Stoneham (called "Charlestown End" 1725) and Reading, they were yet not far distant from the old homestead.

† Accepted by the Sons of the Revolution.

SAMUEL GREEN, the youngest son of Thomas, was born in March, 1645; died 31 October, 1724; married, in 1666, Mary, daughter of Richard Cook, by whom he had ten children, seven sons and three daughters.

THOMAS GREEN, the second son of Samuel, was born in Malden, in 1669; died 24 August, 1745; married 10 May, 1698, Hannah, daughter of John Vinton, of Woburn. They had three sons and one daughter.

THOMAS GREEN, the eldest son of Thomas, was born at Malden, 9 December, 1702; died in 1753; married Mary, daughter of Daniel Green of Stoneham. They had two sons and four daughters.

JEREMIAH GREEN, the youngest son of Thomas, was born 1 June, 1762; died in 1836; married, in 1782, Martha Green of Stoneham, by whom he had eleven children, three sons and eight daughters. He left a very handsome estate. He enlisted in the Revolutionary War from South Reading, Mass., and served for over nine months as a private in the Massachusetts troops under Captain Green and Colonel Howe. He was granted a pension for these services, in 1833, at the age of seventy. (Letter of Bureau of Pensions, Department of the Interior, to H. H. Green, Lynn, Mass., under date of September 24, 1896.)

KETURAH GREEN, the fourth daughter of Jeremiah, was born 12 May, 1793; died 24 May, 1846; married 5 January, 1809, BENJAMIN BROWN WILEY.

WILEY

JOHN WILEY, was one of the earliest settlers in the town of Reading, Mass. The date of his birth, and of his arrival from England are unknown. He lived in "Little World," now called Woodville. He died about 1672. His wife, Elizabeth, died in 1662. He had a son, Timothy (born 1653), and three daughters.

TIMOTHY WILEY, was born 1653; died 1728; married, 1st, in 1678, Elizabeth, daughter of George Davis. She died 1695. He married, 2nd, in 1697, Susanna ——. By his first wife he had three sons: John, Timothy, Jr., and Benjamin, 3rd (named after an uncle in England), and by his second wife, one son, Thomas.

THOMAS WILEY, the youngest son of Timothy, born in 1697; married in 1728 Tabertha, daughter of John Goodwin; had two sons and one daughter.

EBENEZER WILEY, the youngest son of Thomas, born in 1729; died in 1771; had four sons and one daughter.

JAMES WILEY, eldest son of Ebenezer, was born 24 January, 1755; married in 1779, Mary, daughter of Elias Bryant, born 25 August, 1754. They had five sons and two daughters.

BENJAMIN BROWN WILEY, the third son of James, was born 8 April, 1786; died in 1877; married, 5 January, 1809, KETURAH, daughter of Jeremiah Green. She was born 12 May, 1793, and died 24 May, 1846.

MARTHA GREEN WILEY, daughter, was born 4 March, 1822; died 12 February, 1879; married 28 October, 1850, ORLANDO B. POTTER.

Additional Information

DENNIS GEERE, born about 1605; died in 1637 (will probated 6 August); married Elizabeth —, born about 1613; came to Boston in the "Abigall" from London, 1635, at the age of 30, with his wife Elizabeth, aged 22, and two daughters, aged three and two years. (Pope's Pioneers of Massachusetts, page 184). He settled at Saugus, near Lynn, Mass. A copy of his will is given in the New England Historic-Genealogical Register. He left no male issue. John Matthews, genealogist, of London, England, states that Dennis was a descendant of Walter Geere, of Heavitree, Devon, and therefore a cousin, in some degree, of George and Thomas. His record is therefore given here, as a matter of general interest in connection with the family history.

I

GEORGE GEER was buried in an old Indian burial ground in what is now the town of Griswold, about two miles from the farm where he died. These early graves were marked only by small flat stones, and the only legible marks were simple initials, if anything, and cannot now be distinguished; but the grave of George was known, as a white oak tree grew out of his grave to mark the spot. Many years ago the tree was cut to the ground, and used for ship timber, but the grave was still known by the stump. James L. Geer (106) thought the place ought to have a permanent marker, so he had a rough stone cut of Westerly granite, with this inscription, "Our first Ancestor, George Geer, died 1726, aged 105, to mark his grave." This was placed on a solid foundation of stones and cement.

- (6) Mary, married 23 September, 1697, Zachariah Mainor. They lived in Groton (now Allyn's Point, Ledyard), adjoining the farm of her grandfather, Robert Allyn. Their descendants, now living in the town, spell the name Maynard. Children: (a) Zachariah, born 23 April, 1700; (b) Hannah, born 23 July, 1706; (c) Mary, born 13 August, 1711.

Amos Geer was a farmer and filled many town offices. He was Justice of the Peace a great many years. He was a superior penman, and old documents in his fine handwriting are still preserved in the records of Groton from 1781 to 1815; and during that period he performed the marriage ceremony for more than a hundred couples, as it was customary in those days to call upon a civil magistrate rather than a clergyman for that service. He was appointed by the town one of the Committee of Correspondence, 20 June, 1774, in the Cause of Liberty for the Colonies, after the British had ordered the port of Boston closed. He represented the town of Groton in the State Legislature in the year 1780, two terms, and again in 1790. He died 19 May, 1821, aged 85. His son Amos, Jr., (63) succeeded him on the same farm (1772-1865), and he was succeeded by his son Jacob Allyn (1817-1857) a successful farmer and school teacher many winters. His son, Deacon Isaac Gallup Geer (145), is the present owner and occupant. He has held various town and church offices. He was elected to the Connecticut Legislature for 1913-1914.

The Oregon Branch

JOSEPH CARY GEER. The ancestor of the Oregon Branch of the family was Joseph Cary, the son of Isaiah, the grandson of Captain Aaron Geer, and the great-grandson of Jonathan Geer, Jr., who was grandson of George (1). He was born 5 February, 1795, in Windham, Conn.; married 1 June, 1815, at Mansfield, Conn., Mary Johnson, born 5 July, 1797, near Providence, R. I.; died 6 December, 1847, at Butteville, Ore. Her father's name was Kenyon Johnson of Rhode Island. Her mother's name was Elizabeth Peckham, of Rhode Island. Her grandmother's name was Hazzard, of Rhode Island. Mary Johnson planted the "lone pine tree" of Mansfield, Conn. It stands on the old Johnson farm near the old house. Her father was plowing, and she, a little six year old girl, was following him. He pulled up a little one-year old pine and gave it to her, and she ran to the garden and planted it. That was in 1803. Now it is a large tree and is called the "Lone Pine."

When this sketch was written, 6 June, 1881, by Ralph C. Geer, his eldest son, Joseph Cary Geer was alive and well, and had 165 children, grand children, great-grand children and great-great-grand children, with their wives and husbands, living on the Pacific coast.

Joseph Cary Geer was born in the east room of the old Geer home, town of Chaplin, five miles from Windham, Conn., and lived on the old place until after he married and had two children, in the meantime having served 42 days in the Windham Artillery under Captain Gurden Hibbard, war of 1812. Colonel Satler's Regiment was stationed at New London. Hibbard's company was known as the "Bull Frog Company."

In 1818, on the 10th day of September, Joseph Cary Geer started for the far west, as Ohio was then called, which was considered more of an undertaking than going around the world now is. He arrived in Ohio and settled on the Darby Plains some time in October, 1818. He worked by day's work summers, and taught school winters, until 1824, when he removed to Madison County and engaged in the dairy business, which he followed successfully until 1840, when he again pulled up stakes and, on the 9th of September, started west again, settling in Knox County, Ill., where he built a good house and barn and otherwise improved his place. Then he took the Oregon fever, two of his sons having already gone to that country, and on the 4th day of April 1847, with the rest of his children and grand children, he bid farewell to civilization and started across the plains for Oregon. He arrived at his present home on the 17th day of October, 1847, where, the next Spring, he planted a nursery, which business he followed until he lost his eyesight, in 1856. He lost his first wife soon after arriving at his home in Oregon, and June 24, 1849, he married Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, who had lost her husband soon after arriving in Oregon in 1847. His last three children were by his second wife. She died March 14, 1855. On June 6, 1856, he married Mrs. Mary Strong, formerly of Ohio.

He always governed himself by the Golden Rule. He never had but one fight in his life, and that was in Madison County, Ohio, when he fought about thirty minutes with a two-year-old bull. He being a very strong and determined man, conquered the bull, and led him back to the pasture, and the bull was willing to stay.

In Ohio Joseph Cary Geer was called a Yankee and the Virginians and Kentuckians hated to be outlifted by him, but they could not help it. One day at a log rolling, one of their "bullies" undertook to break him down lifting at a handspike, but came to the ground himself and never recovered. He was a great wrestler in his younger days, a great worker, and benevolent to a fault. He held office in both church (Universalist) and state; was for a long time a trustee of his township in Ohio. He was an inveterate hater of tobacco; full of fun and anecdote, and I never heard him swear or tell a lie. He lost the sight of his eyes by having them operated on by a quack doctor who pretended to be an eye doctor. He had a small cataract on each eye but I do not believe they would have hurt him.

To Aaron Greer Captain of the 11th Comp^y in the 5th Regiment of Militia in the State of Conn. (Thru H. Greening);

Whereas, I have rec^d, an Order and Intelligence from Governor Sumball, advising that Eleven Ships of War and Lightly Transport of our Enemy's Fleet, with a Land Force on Board as is supposed are lying before the Town and Harbour of Newton Don &c. and directing me without Delay to Muster, and cause to be equip^d, the Regiment under my Command, and then have an Readiness to March at a Moment's Warning.

These are therefore to require you without the least Delay to muster and cause to be completely equip^d, the Company under your Command both Officers and Men and to be both in Readiness to march at a Moment's Warning, or to receive such other Order as shall be directed. — Given under my hand in Windsor this 6th day of Dec^r 1776.
